

RESOLUTION! 2012 ★★☆☆☆

The Place, Euston, London WC1 (Run ended)

VIOLINIST Alison Blunt made the hairs on the back of my neck prickle with her solo accompaniment to Raquel Claudino's The Dead Can Dance. It was the opener of last Tuesday's Resolution! at Euston's The Place, the modern dance world's annual opportunity for anyone with guts to dance for the first time in public. The choreographers are chosen from written applications so it's pot luck on and off the stage.

Alison Blunt's playing is unique. Eerie, gut-ripping rattles and chokes from hell are interrupted by ringing notes of heavenly hope.

I have never heard anything like it
